

Role Profile

P4602 PS Custody

Role Description

Determine the appropriate course of action for each detained person and ensure a secure and safe environment whilst allowing an expeditious investigation in accordance with PACE, Codes of Practice, consistent with the principals of the CPS guidelines, Home Officer policy, force policy and any other relevant legislation.

Main Responsibilities

- Maintain high standards of security, safety and efficiency for anyone within the custody suite by implementing all relevant legislation and guidelines to provide an environment which enables expeditious enquiries into the facts of individual cases.
- Determine whether detention should be authorised for arrested persons and decide whether to charge, caution and/or release with or without bail detained persons, including appropriate liaison with external agencies and investigating officers, by implementing all relevant guidelines or legislation ensuring the expeditious and effective processing of detained persons.
- Maintain appropriate entries on records and produce routine and ad hoc reports either by delegation to staff or personally to ensure that all necessary returns are made to internal and external departments and to ensure security, safety and the effective running of the custody function.
- Identify problems and issues effecting the custody function and implement and review them either through personal intervention or by report to the Custody Centre manager to maintain satisfactory standards of performance. This includes implementing and reviewing policies and instructions originating from the superintendent Criminal Justice.
- Provide direction and supervision for police jailers and civilian detention officers, identifying development and welfare needs to ensure the effective performance of their duties.
- Ensure that the custody staff keep the custody suite clean and tidy in order to comply with health and safety legislation.
